

Armenia specific companies and products

This list includes notable companies with primary headquarters located in the country. The industry and sector follow the Industry Classification Benchmark taxonomy. Organizations which have ceased operations are included and noted as defunct. Notable companies. Status: P=Private, S=State; A=Active, D=Defunct. Name.

You can get to the pages of the export catalog (and also to the site and to the mobile application) in two ways. The first is to add your company, the second - to place an interactive advertising module.

armenia and artsakh (nagorno-karabakh) business directory. Search of companies, enterprises, organizations by selected products, services from the "Spyur" classifier Arm

The latest available country-specific data shows that 92.2% of products exported from Armenia was bought by importers in: Russia (40.4% of the Armenian total), United Arab Emirates (26.6%), Hong Kong (8%), mainland China (5.1%), Netherlands (2.8%), Iraq (2.2%), Georgia (1.6%), Bulgaria (1.16%), Belgium (1.13%), Iran (also 1.13%), Belarus (1.1% ...

Before independence, Armenia's economy was largely industry-based - chemicals, electronics, machinery, processed food, synthetic rubber, and textile - and highly dependent on outside resources. The republic had developed a modern industrial sector, supplying machine tools, textiles, and other manufactured goods

You can get to the pages of the export catalog (and also to the site and to the mobile application) in two ways. The first is to add your company, the second – to place an interactive advertising module.

Armenia is a sovereign state in the South Caucasus region of Eurasia. Located in Western Asia,[1][2] on the Armenian Highland, it is bordered by Turkey to the west, Georgia to the north, Azerbaijan to the east, and Iran and Azerbaijan's exclave of Nakhchivan to the south.

Before independence, Armenia's economy was largely industry-based - chemicals, electronics, machinery, processed food, synthetic rubber, and textile - and highly dependent on outside resources. The republic had developed a modern industrial sector, supplying machine tools, textiles, and other manufactured goods to sister republics in exchange for raw materials and energy.[4]

As of January 2019, there are about 40 thousand registered companies with payroll positions. There are 247 companies with over 250 registered employees. The average wage in these companies amounts to 240 thousand AMD.[5] follow the Industry Classification Benchmark taxonomy. Organizations which have ceased operations are included and noted as defunct.

This list includes notable companies with primary headquarters located in the country. The industry and sector

Each quarter, the largest taxpaying companies are disclosed and published online.[8] Data may be looked up per industry and company size. E.g. among software development companies, the largest taxpayer between 2014 and 2017 was Synopsis Armenia.[9]

A list of IT sector companies in Armenia can be found on the site of EIF Guide.[10] Meanwhile, the Chamber of Commerce and Industry features a list of leading international technology companies in Armenia.[11] Notable IT companies founded in Armenia include PicsArt, Krisp, and others.

Contact us for free full report

Web: <https://www.hollanddutchtours.nl/contact-us/>

Email: energystorage2000@gmail.com

WhatsApp: 8613816583346

