Designed to protect you and your family, the EternaLight will automatically turn on during a power outage or natural disaster. Its NASA inspired solar battery will provide hours of lights without the hassle of generators or battery powered lanterns.

The EternaLight will automatically turn on whenever power is lost in the home. No more fumbling around in the dark looking for candles (fire hazard) or flashlights (requires batteries).

EternaLight doesn't just provide peace of mind, it can also save you a ton of money. In fact, using the EternaLight like a regular lightbulb can cut your electric bill up to 80%!
