Iraq cost savings

In this panel, co-hosted by the Center for Middle East Studies and the Watson Institute's Costs of War project, scholars from the Iraqi diaspora Zahra Ali (Rutgers University), Khaled al-Hilli (CUNY Graduate Center), Oula Kadhum (London School of Economic and Political Science), and Kali Rubaii (Purdue University) reflect on the broad consequences of war in Iraq over the past 20 years, in particular in relation to gender, culture, displacement, the environment and health.

The following list includes many Costs of War papers that directly address the costs of the U.S.-led war in Iraq. Other papers on the website address the costs of the post-9/11 wars, more generally, including in Afghanistan, Pakistan, Somalia, Syria, Yemen, and elsewhere.

Creating Refugees: Displacement Caused by the United States" Post-9/11 Wars. David Vine, Cala Coffman, Katalina Khoury, Madison Lovasz, Helen Bush, Rachael Leduc, and Jennifer Walkup. 2021.
