MyConnect's team is committed to providing the best service and will guide you through the whole process of connecting utilities all in one call so you can move into your new home with everything connected.

*While we may offer you different options for products or services you require, MyConnect is not a comparison service.*More information about our service and commercial partnerships is available in our FAQs.*While our service is provided to you without charge, check with your current supplier(s) whether any exit fees apply.*MyConnect is owned by Origin Energy Limited. We may recommend Origin products to you.

The process for switching energy providers when moving house is really no different than signing up for your current address. Simply put in the address of your new home, and when you go through the Origin Energy sign up process you'll be asked whether:

If you're an existing Origin Energy customer who's moving house and want to keep your current Origin Energy service, you can organise your move using your Origin Energy Account online.

You can arrange your move with Origin Energy as far in advance as you would like, and it's generally a smart idea to plan your energy connection in your new home quite far in advance to avoid any last minute problems. However, same-day connections might be possible.

Otherwise, Origin Energy electricity connections can be arranged for the next business day if you let Origin Energy know the day before, 1PM Monday to Friday. Origin Energy gas connections can take up to three business days.
